

PROFILE

- Entrepreneurial-minded developer with proven ability to work as part of a team and take independent responsibility on tasks
- Detail-oriented, well organized, quick learner with very strong technical aptitude and the ability to work concurrently on multiple projects
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, capable of bridging stakeholders' business requirements to product's technical feature set and capabilities
- Strong interest in technology and its application towards solving market problems

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Torstar Digital
Senior Developer

April 2008-Present

- Architected an incubated internet start-up in the social media/social networking space, working closely with upper management and other key stakeholders
- Conducted competitive analysis relative to feature sets, underlying technology, product workflow, usability, etc. to establish technical differentiation and feature/benefit statements
- Developed and consulted on the delivery of internet solutions to external clients using a proprietary ASP.NET Content Management System
- Participated in all aspects of product development lifecycle, including requirements identification, analysis and design, development, testing, implementation and support imason inc.

Internet Consultant

2007-2008

Internet Consultant (co-op)

2006-2007

- Collaborated directly with clients throughout the project lifecycle, to understand their needs and deliver enterprise quality solutions
- Designed and developed web-based, n-tier systems with Microsoft technologies (ASP.NET, C#, SQL Server, Microsoft AJAX)
- Developed key business initiatives with the integration of Omniture analytics reporting and leading the technical implementation of search engine optimizations for clients
- Engaged and worked with a wide range of stakeholders and demonstrated the ability to develop solid working relationships with both internal and client personnel

EDUCATION

University of Waterloo, Waterloo, Ontario

2002 – 2007

Bachelor of Computer Science, Honours Computer Science and Economics Minor

- Completed two years of work term experiences at imason inc., Canadian Bank of Commerce (CIBC), Bank of Montreal (BMO), and University of Waterloo

REFERENCES

Available on request